Psalm

The Psalms are prayer-songs that were written over a period of 700 years. Some of them are believed to have been written by King David. Because many psalms put our own thoughts into words, they are a rich source of prayer.

When we worship God through prayer, we show our love for him. We also express the following:

Adoration (praise) for his greatness and goodness

Contrition for our sins

Thanksgiving for all he has given us and done for us

Supplication (asking) for things we need

These are the reasons that we pray—the purposes of prayer. Do you see why we can call our prayers “acts of love”?

A Sample of Psalms

Each of the following psalms is a type of prayer. Find and read each psalm in your Bible.

Psalm 19	Adoration	Psalm 75	Thanksgiving	Psalm 18	Love
Psalm 51	Contrition	Psalm 69	Supplication

A Psalm Hunt

Look up the following psalms in the Bible. Read the first two verses of each one and decide which type of prayer it is. Write the corresponding letter on the line: A, C, T, S, or L.

Case Study

The first part of the case study discusses the background of the company and the market it operates in. It highlights the challenges the company has faced in recent years, particularly in terms of sales and profitability. The company has experienced a significant decline in sales over the past two years, which has led to a corresponding decrease in profitability. This has forced the company to re-evaluate its business strategy and identify areas for improvement.

The second part of the case study focuses on the company's current strategy and the steps it is taking to address the challenges it is facing. The company has implemented a number of initiatives aimed at increasing sales and improving operational efficiency. These include a focus on customer service, a re-organization of the sales team, and the implementation of new technology. The company is also exploring new market opportunities and looking for ways to diversify its product line.

The final part of the case study provides a summary of the key findings and offers recommendations for the company's future. It suggests that the company should continue to focus on customer service and operational efficiency, while also exploring new market opportunities and diversifying its product line. It also recommends that the company should consider a range of options for raising capital, including issuing new shares and seeking investment from private equity firms.

Called to Be a Voice

God calls each Christian to be a voice like John the Baptist. He calls us to lead others to Jesus. Do you know anyone who has been a voice leading you to Jesus? Write the name of that person and explain how he or she has done this.
